For the 19th consecutive year, GEG will organize its team members to participate in the Macao International Dragon Boat Races. Recently, a blessing ceremony was held to wish for a smooth race for the six teams formed by GEG team members from its different properties and the GEG dragon boats.

Red packets were also distributed to the GEG Dragon Boat Team members to encourage them to make continuous efforts in the race and strive for excellence.

Mr. Tyson Hoi, Captain of the GEG Dragon Boat Team, said, “We truly thank the company for placing considerable value on dragon boat sport and provided us with diverse supports over the years. In addition to supporting our participation in the Macao International Dragon Boat Races to gain practical experience, the company also actively organizes cheering teams to root for our team, which deeply encourages us. We will continue to give our full play in this year’s races, demonstrate our strong team spirit and strive for excellence.”

Over the years, GEG has been supporting Macau in hosting various sports events and activities through multi-pronged approaches.
