

GEG Holds Easter Egg Workshop at Association for the Disabled

Apr 12, 2017 – Galaxy Entertainment Group (“GEG”) regularly participates in various community activities, encouraging its team members to put love and care into action. Established in 2011, the GEG Volunteer Team has served hundreds of community service associations. In celebration of Easter, Mr. Michael Mecca, President of GEG, led the GEG volunteers in a visit to the Association of Parents of the Mentally Challenged of Macau’s Hil Kong Center and donated MOP100,000 to support its charitable work.

During the visit, the GEG Volunteer Team held the Decoupage Easter Egg Workshop for the members of the association. On the day of the event, nearly 40 members of the association joined the workshop to make their one-of-a-kind Easter eggs, decorating their eggs with colorful paper cutouts.

Mr. Mecca presented the donation check to Mr. Paulo Wong, the General Secretary of the Association. Mr. Wong thanked GEG for the donation and said, “GEG has been proactive in caring for local communities and has organized a variety of social integration initiatives, such as inviting our members to perform for its annual staff activity as well as holding workshops for our members, which provides them the opportunity to realize their potential.”

“As a responsible corporate citizen, GEG has always been actively involved in local community services, I hope the workshop spreads festivity and warmth to the members of the association.” Mr. Mecca said, “Also, I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Volunteer Team for their dedication. I look forward to seeing them extending their helping hands and kindness to more of those in need.”

GEG has been working closely with the Association and has organized several workshops for its members, including the Easter Bunny Cookie Decoration Workshop, the Easter Bunny Basket Workshop and the Mother’s Day Card Workshop. GEG regularly donates to the Association to support improvements to their services and facilities. With the objective of spreading love and care to the community, GEG vows to continue supporting different community activities and extending its helping hand to the needy.
