

Galaxy Entertainment Group to be the First Gaming Operator to Launch Free Wi-Fi Service on Shuttle Buses

August 8, 2013 - With the rising trend of web browsing via mobile or other portable devices, Galaxy Entertainment Group (“GEG”) continues its effort to enhance Macau’s tourism offerings by launching free Wi-Fi service on 74 shuttle buses of Galaxy Express and StarWorld Express. The new service will not only enable access to online travel information, but the users will also be eligible to enroll in a lucky draw to win free hotel accommodations and other prizes.

From now on, internet service is available free of charge on the designated routes of Galaxy Express between Galaxy Macau™ and StarWorld Hotel, Taipa Ferry Terminal, Macau Ferry Terminal, Macau International Airport, Portas do Cerco, Avenida de Almeida Ribeiro and Posto Fronteiriço do Cotai, as well as the designated routes of StarWorld Express between StarWorld Hotel and Galaxy Macau, Taipa Ferry Terminal, Macau Ferry Terminal and Portas do Cerco.

With an aim to enhance travel experience in Macau, the free Wi-Fi service will offer passengers the opportunities to enjoy immediate access to the updated information about Macau, such as weather forecast and the dining and entertainment offerings of the city.

“We are delighted to be the first gaming operator to provide this thoughtful amenity for the tourists visiting Macau,” said Mr. Michael Mecca, President & Chief Operating Officer of GEG. “The latest development with Galaxy Express and StarWorld Express has exemplified our commitment to creating exceptional travel experiences for our visiting guests; and it is only possible because of our dedicated team members, who have devoted their best efforts to overcome all the technical issues and difficulties. The entire group is absolutely thrilled by this brand new service we have accomplished.”

Ms. Lee, a tourist from Hong Kong, was very pleased with the free Wi-Fi service available on Galaxy Express and StarWorld Express. “It’s great. I can not only chat with my friends via Wi-Fi, but I can also share my photos and travel stories online to keep them updated about my trip.” Starting from today to 31 October, passengers who use the Wi-Fi service on Galaxy Express and StarWorld Express will be eligible to register for a lucky draw. The prizes include 180 exquisite souvenir sets, as well as a total of 6-night accommodations at Galaxy Hotel™ or StarWorld Hotel.

銀娛 GEG

- End -

Photo Captions:

P001: Free Wi-Fi access is now available on the designated routes of Galaxy Express to offer better service to the tourists visiting Macau.

銀娛 GEG

P002: With an aim to enhance travel experience in Macau, the free Wi-Fi service will help promote Macau's image as the "World Center of Tourism and Leisure."

銀娛 GEG

P003: Passengers of StarWorld Express can also enjoy immediate access to travel information via the free Wi-Fi service.

銀娛 GEG

P004: The GEG team member explained to the passengers about the new Wi-Fi service as well as the method to join the lucky draw.